

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and to the public health, high quality of life, and well-being of Vermonters; and

WHEREAS, these infrastructure, facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals – engineers, managers and employees at all levels of government and the private sector – who are responsible for rebuilding, improving and protecting our nation’s transportation, water supply, water treatment and solid waste systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential for Vermonters; and

WHEREAS, it is in the public interest for everyone including civic leaders and children in Vermont to gain knowledge of and to maintain a progressive interest and understanding of the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities; and

WHEREAS, this year marks the 63rd annual National Public Works Week sponsored by the American Public Works Association/Canadian Public Works Association; and

WHEREAS, Public Works Week is an opportunity to pay tribute to our public works professionals, engineers, managers, and employees and to recognize the substantial contributions they make to protecting our national health, safety, and quality of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim May 21-27, 2023 as in Vermont.

PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 17th day of May, A.D. 2023.

Philip B. Scott
Governor

Brittney J. Wilson
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs